THURS AY | VENING DECEMBER S.

A VALUABLE ANTIQUE,-A gentleman who recently changed his residence from Baltimore to New York, wears, upon the third finger of his left hand, a ring of inestimable value to lovers of antiquities. The ring consist of a large red Cornelian set as a seal after the fashion of thirty years ago. The stone was purchased that long back in Rome, and was accompanied by documentary evidence of its genuineness as a relic of ill-fated Pompeii. In color it is rich red, and the design is a woman's head and neck deeply cut and polished in a manuer defying the effort of modern cutters. The face is Grecian. The owner of the antique ring gives a few interesting points about the stone as follows: "There exists in the minds of many who have investigated such antiques a superstition that these stones, of which very few can be found in this or any other country, possess the power of reflecting good or ill luck for their owners. Now this stone of mine is to-day, as you see, deep red in color, and it betrays the marks of numerous scratches. When these scratches are plainly visible, say the be-lievers, they forbode evil fortune for for the owner. To morrow, perhaps, this stone will show a bright orange and its surface will be free from any visible rub or scratch, being perfectly glossy and smooth. I have realized considerable interest in the changes which I plainly see and have attributed to atmosphere. I am not prepared to say that I altogether share the superstition connected with it, but I have watched with great interest the changes so apparent in the stone from day to day. A friend of my father was commissioned by him some thirty years ago to purchase the handsomest antique procurable in Rome, and this ring is

An Important Arrest.

The arrest of a suspicious character upon his general appearance, movements or companionship, without waiting until he has robbed a traveler, fired a house, or murder ed a fellow-man, is an important function of a shrewd detective. Even more important is the arrest of a disease which if not checked, will blight and destroy a human life. The frequent cough, loss of appetite, general languor or debility, pallid skin, and bodily aches and pains, appounce the approach of pulmonary consumption, which is promptly arrested and permanently cured by Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medica! Discovery." Sold by druggists.

ADVICE TO MOTHER.

MES. WINLOW'S SOOTHING STRUE, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of methers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarches, griping in the bowels, and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it reses the mother. Price 25 cents a bottle.

THE GOLD MINING COMPANY (location, Music Mountains, A. T.) is as sound a mining enterprise as was ever placed on the market, and its possibilities have never been exceeded. Every share should double in value within a year, and they may quadruple, as they are based on property that would ordinarily have been capitalized ten (10) times as great on account of its known richness and promise.

The shares are made small so that any one can invest. Subscriptions for five shares are as welcome as those for hundreds. The Alexandria Real Estate Investment, Trust and Title Company.

Every dollar of earnings will go to the stockholders in dividends, as there is nothing else that they can be used for.

A Wisewell mill, capacity 20 tons per day, with powerful machinery, has been purchased and will be on the ground ready for erection at the mine within the next thirty days.

The solid basis upon which the company is founded and the practical proofs of the richness of the mine have already secured the confidence of the public, and the stock has steadily advanced in selling value Within the last few days bona fide sales have been made AT PAR.
